TC Transcontinental earns once again recognition as one of Corporate Knights' Best 50 Corporate Citizens in Canada

Montreal, June 7, 2016 – TC Transcontinental (TSX: TCL.A TCL.B) has once again been named one of Canada's 50 best corporate citizens in the prestigious Corporate Knights ranking. The fact that TC Transcontinental received this honour again in 2016 attests to the Corporation's commitment to social responsibility and its determination to follow through by putting forward a well-structured approach implemented with three-year plans.

The Corporate Knights ranking, now in its 15th year, measures the social, environmental and governance performance of contending companies. TC Transcontinental has appeared regularly in the list over the years, and in 2016 the Corporation is ranked in position 40.

"It is an honor for TC Transcontinental to be included once again in the Corporate Knights ranking," said François Olivier, President and Chief Executive Officer of TC Transcontinental. "This recognition crowns our achievements which were accomplished thanks to the collaboration of our employees and inspires us for the future. In a spirit of continuity and encouraged by this success, we have developed our 2016-2018 plan with a focus on the same themes related to employees, communities and the environment, and enhanced it with objectives linked to prosperity. This plan is a great source of pride for us and together, we will continue on this journey in order to drive sustainable results."
